

Prophets of the Most High God Square off with the High Court, and the Fags Pine for a Feca-ccino<sup>1</sup>

By Margie J. Phelps, Privileged Prophetess of the God of Glory in the Last of the Last Days

Washington, D.C. - The Prophets of the Most High God went into the vineyard and met the High Court and the fags to tell them they had sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord.<sup>2</sup> This was on the occasion of the United States Supreme Court hearing arguments related to the so-called “don’t ask, don’t tell” policy of the United States military related to feces-eaters.<sup>3</sup> Before the trip was over, news of the government’s half-hearted ineptitude in arguing this case reached our ears, as apparently Justice Scalia was chomping on the military’s attorney. This came as no surprise to the WBC picketers, who know from first-hand on-the-ground experience that there is no real resistance by America to the onslaught of fags.

The Tachmonites participating in this epic event were Pastor Fred Phelps, Sam Phelps-Roper, Ben Phelps, Shirley Phelps-Roper, Bekah Phelps-Roper and Margie Phelps. Capturing the essence of why they came, Pastor Phelps quoted Amos 3:8, “The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?” He continued, “This situation in this country is so plain to us that we can’t help but shout it from the house tops. That’s what this verse means. The Lord has spoken to us!”

<sup>2</sup> 1 Kings 21:17 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.
19 And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.
20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> The colleges aren’t letting the military recruiters on campus because of their policy; the military, being the control-freaks they are (not for any righteous reason) are squealing like stuck pigs. Mainly they’re mad because they can’t find enough empty headed brats raised for the devil himself who are ignorant enough to voluntarily go over to Iraq to get blown to bits because of the sins of this evil nation (because they’re too lazy and selfish, not for any righteous reason). The college campuses also lack any righteous cause, because their goal is to eradicate the slightest suggestion that it’s wrong and sinful to be a proud fag. So it’s a stinking cesspool of wrong-hearted perverts arguing their cause to the blind guides called the United States Supreme Court. Dandy, no? Smelly to God, yes?

As the messengers unloaded the precious seed,<sup>4</sup> a CNN camera crew and other media converged. They recorded, filmed, sent over cell phones, and otherwise captured for eternity peals of “God hates America” (in song); “semper fi, semper fags, they’re coming home in body bags;” “don’t ask don’t tell; shut your filthy mouth; you’re going to hell;” and, “oh wicked land of sodomites, the truth you do distort; we won’t respect those filthy fags, to hell with this vile court” (in song). Shirley Phelps-Roper spotted Bob Franken from CNN and made it her personal business to make sure he understood every detail of why America is doomed.

Supreme Court staff pressed their snotty noses against the windows to watch the spectacle,<sup>5</sup> knowing they were hearing the truth of God, and hating it. Several hundred perverts lined up outside. Their goal was a seat inside, where they would pressure a cowardly coat to give them a club to beat on the military. The military loves to have it so!<sup>6</sup> Not a single man or woman in uniform stood outside objecting. The so-called “litigation” inside was nothing more than a chair-shuffling-on-the-Titanic-deck-love-fest. Technical theories would be swapped by vain and light persons,<sup>7</sup> but not a single soul in the room was moved by the fear of God.

Sam Phelps-Roper told them why outside. “You spit in God’s face, and now you’re suffering the consequence. He’s given you fools for leaders. The best example is that arrogant ass George Bush. When you get a president who can’t get through his first term without choking on a pretzel, you know you’ve got a real doofus for a leader!” Sam held signs saying “You’re going to hell,” and “Thank God for IEDs” while he delivered these “thus saith the Lord” words to the stiff-necked audience of earth-dwellers delivered into the hands of Zion<sup>8</sup> this day.<sup>9</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Ps 126:6: He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. This group of warriors went forth weeping, leaving Topeka at 5:15 pm (following hugs, “goodbyes,” etc.), and flew to DC; waited on slow luggage; endured the vicissitudes of travel; and arrived at their hotels near midnight, to sleep a few hours before going into battle. They did so joyfully, knowing that their “light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for [them] a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory,” 2 Cor. 4:17.

<sup>5</sup> 1Co 4:9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

<sup>6</sup> Jer 5:31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

<sup>8</sup> Isa 8:18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

Early in the picket a few feces-eaters approached the prophets trying to giggle and hold up a fag flag. The fierce words of condemnation that came from the picketers sent them scurrying back to the crowd for cover in short order. Periodically media approached, including a photographer from Bloomingdale News and a reporter from the AP (who captured words from Bekah Lynne that went forth to the round world), to capture the bold and cheerful words of the saints.<sup>10</sup>

In addition to the crowd waiting to go in, scores of people passed by on foot and in cars. Several of them tried to mock the messengers of God and the us-ward chided with them sharply,<sup>11</sup> meeting their lies with truth (e.g., “God loves everybody,” “Not the people in hell;” “Who are you people?” [from an old pinch nosed lemon-faced mean-spirited harpy]; “We’re the prophets of God sent to deliver a plain message to this nation that God is your enemy; you on the other hand are a hell bound hard hearted old woman on whose watch this nation was turned over to the fags so the soldiers are coming home in body bags,” etc.).

<sup>9</sup> E.g., Isa 43:16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.

22 But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

<sup>10</sup> 2 Cor. 1:5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

Gill in part on verse 6: “The apostle repeats and explains the end of both his comforts and his troubles, and shows, by a dilemma, a strong way of arguing, that the afflictions and consolations, the adversity and prosperity of him, and the other ministers of the Gospel, were for the good of the saints: and it is as if he should say, when you see us continue to preach the Gospel with so much boldness and cheerfulness, amidst so many reproaches, afflictions, and persecutions, you must be the more established in the faith, and confirmed in the truth of the Gospel; and this cannot fail of ministering much peace, satisfaction, and comfort to your minds.”

Sporting a flag tied around her foot dragging on the ground, and holding signs saying “God hates you,” “Thank God for 9/11,” and “God hates the USA,” Bekah Phelps-Roper made a megaphone of her signs and told the crowd, “The red in the flags you fools worship represents fag rectal blood and the blood of millions of babies this country has murdered.”<sup>12</sup>

Ben spotted some “Christians” in the crowd outside the building pretending to pray. As he ran the video camera and held a sign saying “Fags doom nations,” and in righteous and fiery indignation, he lifted up his voice in sardonic tone and said: “It’s a sin to pray for this nation. God hates people who pray for America today.”

Shirley picked up on this theme, as she held signs saying “America is doomed,” “God is America’s terror,” and “Thank God for dead soldiers,” while dragging two American flags on the ground, causing her to add: “It’s too late to pray for this evil nation. Besides, your prayers are in vain. The goddess you worship doesn’t hear you and can’t do anything!”

After many more words and songs, the appointed hour for the “arguments” to begin arrived. The bright and shining ones<sup>13</sup> ended by sharing these words with the crowd: “O yez, O yez. The Supreme Court of the United States is now in session. All those having business before this dishonorable court draw nigh – AND BEND OVER!”

With sounds of joy, the blessed ones packed up the instruments of the Great Publishing Company, and headed off on foot to the Union Station parking garage. They loaded up in the van, and made another stop at the hotel to change and prepare for the trip home. The triumphant team reported home, to tell what there was done,<sup>14</sup> then went to the airport and traveled home.

The Court will do the wrong thing, that’s a certainty. If they do the right thing it’ll be by accident and for the wrong reasons. This will stiffen their necks, harden their hearts, blind their eyes, stop up their ears, make them incapable of repenting, <sup>12</sup> Acts 21: 8 And the next day we that were of Paul’s company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

<sup>13</sup> Mt 13:43: Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. So 6:10: Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

and preserve them in their iniquity unto the Day of Judgment. This nation deserves fools for judges,<sup>15</sup> and their iniquitous ways have caused God to lead them further down the path of sin and error. Whatever opinion comes forth, whatever reaction the fags or “Christians” have, will do nothing but crystallize this Christ-less nation in its sin, and bring us that much closer to the day when Christ will come through the clouds, in majestic glory, to be revealed from heaven, with his mighty angels (messengers), and take vengeance on them who know not God and obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>16</sup> They received not the love of the truth! What comfort to our hearts to contemplate that day!
